Elevated Standards of Care. Unrivaled Flexibility. Remarkable Functionality.

GBS and NextGen® are committed to helping customers compete more effectively in the rapidly changing healthcare environment. NextGen® EHR gives providers more time to focus on patient care without changing the way they practice medicine.

MEETING DEMANDS

Today's healthcare industry is faced with an increased demand for information, putting extreme strains on providers. Currently, an electronic health records is one of the only known technologies that will have an impact on clinical, administrative, liability, and compliance aspects of your practice. NextGen® Electronic Health Records will help practices keep pace today, and set the pace in the future. Maximize your potential and create complete medical records with minimal effort. The result is better management of patient records, which ultimately leads to better patient care.

PROVEN

NextGen® EHR has outpaced and outperformed its competitors and proven its products through numerous accolades and awards of independent healthcare agencies such as AC Group, MS HUG, TEPR, Forbes, and KLAS. NextGen's innovative solution distinguishes itself from other vendors by leading the market in three crucial areas - award-winning technology, customer results, and financial stability. We offer the most flexible technology on the market - allowing for customization to meet the specific needs and goals of individual practices.

NEXTGEN
